

Young Leader of the Year Award information pack

What is the PFM Young Leader of the Year Award?

The award highlights the remarkable talents of the next generation of Facilities Management Leaders. We believe it's important to show the significant impact those have made early on in their careers (generally under the age of 35). It recognises and identifies future leaders within the FM industry. Providing young leaders with a platform and voice to share their journey. The award showcases their innovative and fresh thinking, driving progress and fostering sustainable growth within the industry.

The process for the prestigious PFM Award is managed in partnership with the Emerging Workplace Leaders and is Sponsored by Boden Group.

Why should you enter the Young Leader of the Year Award?

The award can be a transformative experience for both the winner and finalists. Providing not only recognition but also opportunities to contribute to the industry's advancement and making a lasting impact.

Here are some of the ways the award can help your future career:

- One of the Only FM Sector Awards to Specifically Recognise Young Leaders
- Recognition & Identification of the FM Industry's Future Leaders
- Giving Emerging Talent a Platform and Voice
- Showcasing Up and Coming Innovations and Fresh Thinking.

It holds significant importance as it is part of the prestigious PFM Awards, signifying excellence and setting a high standard for the Facilities Management (FM) industry.
